LOUISVILLE, Nov. 9.—Republicans probably will contest the electoral vote of Kentucky if it is given to Bryan by the Goebelites board of canvassers. Chairman Leslie Combs, of the Republican State committee, has no doubt that gross frauds were perpetrated by the Goebelites and that it is their intention to count out Yerkes, the Republican candidate for Governor, and the McKinley electors. Thousands of Republican votes have not been counted in districts controlled by Bryan's supporters. It is certain that contests will be made for the seats of several representatives, to whom certificates of election will be given. Republicans here feel confident that Rhea, White and Pugh will be kept out of Congress. In fact Chairman Combs to-day announced his purpose to contest the electoral vote of the State and to see that congressional contests are instituted by the defeated Republican candidates in the Third, Ninth and Tenth districts.

Mr. Combs said: "There is no question that Yerkes carried the State by a substantial plurality of the votes cast. It will take the official count to show how many ballots were not counted by the pre-arranged plans of the Democrats to reduce the Yerkes vote. When it is realized that ten votes to the precinct means over 18,000 votes in the State, it can readily be seen that this number of voters could have been secured by the Democratic party in each precinct without affronting public opinion by the open ruffianism and disregard of appearances which controlled their action in 1896. The thefts this year are, in my opinion, greater than they were last year. I desire to make no factious contests, but if the facts are as we now believe we will contest the electoral vote of the State of Kentucky."

As to congressmen, Mr. Combs said: "We believe that Moss was elected over Rhea in the Third district; that N. T. Hopkins defeated J. B. White in the Tenth, and that Sam J. Pugh defeated J. N. Kehoe in the Ninth. We believe that their election will be shown on the face of the official returns, but if the commissioners fail to count the ballots that were not counted by the officers of election we shall certainly contest."

In another statement to-night Mr. Combs said: "We have discovered great frauds perpetrated by the Democrats in various sections of the State. In Breathitt county frauds amounting to over 400 votes in favor of the Democrats have been discovered. In one precinct in that county the Democrats refused to allow the Republican inspectors inside of the booth, and the precinct, which usually went Republican by a majority of fifty-eight, was carried by the Democrats by thirty. In another precinct in the same county the Republican challengers were put out of the booth by force, and the inspectors were refused admittance. In another precinct the returns showed that only fifty-five Republicans voted, yet there are 140 who give their names and are willing to make affidavit that they voted the Republican ticket straight. The Republicans usually carry that precinct by fifty, and yet this year it went Democratic by 150. Other frauds in Breathitt county indicate that we have lost over 400 votes."

"Numerous and flagrant frauds have been discovered in Logan county, frauds that permeated the entire vote. In Olmstead precinct the returns show that only eighty Republicans voted, yet we have positive information that 135 was the actual number, and other frauds in the county will amount to fully 400 votes. The entire Third district is permeated with the Goebel methods. Republican voters who were challenged were not allowed to make an honest investigation, and in many places in the Eighth district Democratic challengers were sworn in as deputy sheriffs and were badges in the booths. In the Seventh district over 400 Republican voters in the city of Lexington were deprived of their votes by the Goebel tactics practiced by the Democratic officers of election, while the Franklin and Owen county returns were padded as boldly that it cannot escape the notice of any one acquainted with those counties. "There are also extensive reports of frauds in Lawrence, Rowan, Nicholas and Mason counties, of the Ninth district, with great efforts to increase the frauds in the final count. The commissioners of Lawrence county attempted to throw out the vote of the precinct of Charley on a trivial technicality. It gave the Republican candidate 127 majority. In a number of counties the commissioners refused to allow any inspection of the work of the election officers by representatives of the Republican party. Reports of frauds of five or ten votes to a precinct are so numerous that the inference cannot be escaped that it was systematically planned beforehand.

"In many Democratic strongholds the Democrats failed to comply with the provisions of bill No. 19. In every such instance this committee has instructed the representatives of the Republican party to make no technical objections if they believed the votes to be legally cast and counted. There is no question but what if the face of the returns fall to show Yerkes's election we can make specific exposures that will show he has been defeated, not by a majority of the voters of Kentucky, but by the fraudulent use of the advantage given the Democratic party by the Goebel election law."

With unofficial returns from every precinct in Kentucky, the Courier-Journal (Dem.) puts Bryan's majority at 7,565 and Beckham's at 4,110. It says: "The county boards canvassed the returns in every county in the State to-day, and fifty counties out of 119 in the State whose official returns had been received to-night did not materially change the majorities given in the foregoing, though there is no doubt that the full official returns will vary somewhat from the unofficial figures. It is hardly possible that majorities of 7,565 and 4,110 shall be wiped out, however, unless the unexpected should happen in the counties whose official returns are not in."

Investigation Probable.

HE TELLS HOW THE ELECTION WAS WON FOR M'KINLEY.Gold Democrats, Whom He Calls
"American Citizens," Aided Materially in Defeating Bryanism.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—President McKinley to-day answered Mr. Bryan's message of congratulation in the following dispatch:

"Hon. William J. Bryan, Lincoln—I acknowledge with cordial thanks your message of congratulation and extend you my good wishes. WILLIAM M'KINLEY.

Mr. Bryan's message to the President reached Canton after Mr. McKinley had started for Washington, and was forwarded to him there.

Bryan Will Speak Later.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 9.—Mr. Bryan is in receipt of many requests for a statement concerning his future plans and his attitude on public questions. In view of Tuesday's result. He intimated to-day that he would before long enlighten the public fully, but for the present he had private matters which demanded his attention. Mr. Bryan said to-day he might not accompany Col. Wetmore on his hunting trip to the Ozark mountains. His health is good and he does not feel the need of such a trip. He said he had been from Lincoln so much recently he found his own house afforded him the best opportunity for rest.

HANNA TALKS TO A REPORTER.

Patriotism and Loyalty Were Strong
Factors in the Campaign.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Senator Hanna, chairman of the national Republican committee, arrived here to-day from Cleveland. Speaking of the election he said: "The people of this country were overwhelmingly in favor of sound money, law and order and a continuation of that policy which stands for prosperity. Patriotism and loyalty to the flag were strong factors in this campaign, and that, together with the aid of those who are generally termed sound-money Democrats, or Gold Democrats, but whom I call American citizens, all combined to bring about this result."

"Nebraska was the greatest victory of all. We made a hard fight in that State. We went for it for all we were worth, and while we did our utmost and hoped for the best, we did not expect to carry it."

"We have carried Kentucky, and we have not yet given up hope of receiving her electoral vote, and we do not propose to give up. We have carried the State and we propose to fight for it."

"How about changes in the Cabinet, senator?" Mr. Hanna was asked.

"You won't get a word out of me about Cabinet positions. I have nothing to say about that. It is none of my affairs."

Mr. Hanna's attention was called to the fact that Senator Depew had said the insurrection should be put down in the Philippines at once, no matter how many money and how many men it would require to accomplish this end, and was asked for his opinion on the subject. He replied: "I think the insurrection should evaporate almost at once, but if it should not, I think we can safely leave the matter in the hands of the President."

"If I find the man who started that report, I will kill him. I won't talk about it to allow anyone else to do it. It is too absurd."

"Do you mean to say you would decline the nomination if it were tendered you?"

"Well, something very like it. But I don't wish to discuss that at all. It is too foolish."

MENTIONS HEATH AND PAYNE

FOR THE POSTMASTER GENERAL-
SHIP IF SMITH SUCCEEDS LONG.Numerous Surmises That Probably Lack Basis—Yesterday's Meeting of the Cabinet.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Cabinet rumors in these post-election days have succeeded the speculations over results in ante-election days. One rumor has it that Secretary Hay will give up the portfolio of state and be succeeded by Postmaster General Smith. Mr. Hay has discovered, as have secretaries of state before him, that it is vastly easier to negotiate treaties than to secure their ratification by the Senate. Rich and famous, having reached the highest political appointive position in the government, he can well afford to retire on his laurels.

It is suggested also that Ambassador Chase, having followed Hay at London, might like to take up the portfolio of state when Hay lays it down. In that case Hay might be sent back to London as ambassador. This, of course, would leave Smith in the Postoffice Department, a place he does not specially fancy, though he has filled it to the satisfaction of the President. Just here comes another rumor—that Secretary Long will retire from the navy and be succeeded by Smith. It is known that Mr. Long, though making an entirely acceptable secretary of the navy, prefers to return to private life. Should he do so and Smith succeed him, or should Smith retire to private life and Long succeed him, the result was a renewal of the disturbances. "The result of the election will demonstrate conclusively to the natives that the American people are behind President McKinley in the policy which he has observed, and there will be a speedy end of the opposition and agitation which has prevailed for the last six months. The fact of the case is that among the intelligent and responsible element of the people there has been a growing feeling of friendliness toward and confidence in this country. They have been slow, however, to take an open stand in the matter, both because of dread of assassination from their rebels and the fear that their lots would be unhappy in case they did not openly espouse our cause and the election should result in the withdrawal of our troops from the islands. Now they will have no fear about actively exerting their influence in our behalf, and they will do it. They and all the better class of people are tired of war and the generally disturbed conditions."

Heath will have charge of Republican headquarters during the coming four years, preparing the way for the next quadrennial campaign. Senator Hanna tried this plan after the accession of the present administration, but the experiment was only partly successful. He expects, with Heath devoting his time to the work, to make it a highly successful and permanent feature of the Republican political organization.

Rumor has it that Secretary Hitchcock will retire from the Interior Department next month and be succeeded by Senator Carter, of Montana, who will then be a statesman out of a job. Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, is again in the same category. He will probably be made ambassador to Italy, which has been made vacant by the resignation of General Draper, of Massachusetts. It is possible, however, that Wolcott might succeed Attorney General Griggs as head of the Department of Justice. Griggs wants to retire to resume his private practice, which is worth to him pecuniarily five or six times as much as a Cabinet place. However, Carter and Wolcott will not go in the Cabinet, though they will both get something if they want it. Then, too, if Long retires Cabinet traditions demand that another New Englander be appointed to some portfolio. But one administration has ever struggled through a term without a New England Cabinet officer—that of John Quincy Adams—and he himself was from Massachusetts.

There is an impression in some quarters that if Hay retires he will be succeeded by Mr. Root, now secretary of war. Mr. Root is an able man and very close to the President, but he might well prefer to retain the war portfolio during the coming reorganization of the army, a subject in which he feels a deep and intelligent interest.

The other Cabinet officers—Secretary Gage, of the treasury, and Secretary Wilson, of agriculture—will, it is rumored, remain undisturbed.

All the members of the Cabinet, excepting Secretaries Long and Wilson, attended the meeting to-day. They remained in session until nearly 2 o'clock and discussed the Chinese situation, as well as matters pertaining to Cuba, the Philippines and Porto Rico. Two of the three hours that the session lasted were occupied with a discussion of foreign affairs, necessitated in part by the fact that the President intends exhaustively to treat on this subject in his forthcoming message to Congress. Reference was made to the expressions in portions of the European press that the United States policy regarding China would undergo marked change immediately after the election, and it is authoritatively announced that after a most exhaustive review of every step of the Chinese difficulty from its inception up to the present moment, delivered by Secretary Hay, the Cabinet met and the
